Here are some maps we have. Will these suffice? If you want the one with all the boom locations etc without the booms etc I can see if someone can pull that for me. I'm still looking to see what else is here.

Thanks,

Do we have any good facility shots? Like overhead/flight type?

LOL I didn't think you had given me any from the second "mini" photo log...maybe you did and I just didn't realize it. LOL Well if you need anything more just let me know. Would you like a couple from yesterday? We cut into one of the fatty acid tanks (#393) and pulled a sample for the CID guy and attorneys.

Great. If you need/want any from the second group I sent you just let me know and I'll send them up to you.

FYI I just got a call from Joe at MidAtlantic. He will have 2 of his guys here tomorrow to sample some gaskets in the tanks. He said that's all they are sampling. He called me to see how the weather is down here. LOL

I'm attempting to send the rest in a zip file but my computer is deciding today would be a good day to go crazy and freeze every time I send an email...hopefully you'll have it soon.

Thanks
